

Labour Market Information (LMI) for Milton Keynes

Understanding the local job market can help you make well-informed decisions about your career. Here are some key insights into the labour market in Milton Keynes:

- Growing Sectors: Key areas include technology, logistics, retail, and financial services.
- Logistics and Transport: As a central transport hub, Milton Keynes offers many roles in warehousing, supply chain management, and driving.
- Technology: A growing tech sector supports roles in software development, IT, and engineering.
- Retail and Hospitality: Shopping centres and leisure venues create opportunities in customer service and hospitality.
- Construction: Ongoing development projects sustain demand for construction workers and tradespeople.

Current Job Trends

- Tech and IT Roles: High demand for software developers, IT support, and engineers.
- Healthcare Roles: Carers, nurses, and social workers remain in demand.
- Skilled Trades: Consistent need for electricians, plumbers, and builders.